Turkish Nationalists Mobilizing Outside Neutral Area; May Declare War on British If Operations Are Hindered

RUSSIAN SOVIET SEEKING TO TAKE HAND IN WAR

Kemal Confers in Constantinople With the French Commissioner; People for Settlement.

TURKS PREPARED FOR 2-YEAR SIEGE

British Has Small Force Concentrated at Chanak; Allies May Stand in the Way.

LONDON — While the allied powers are feverishly endeavoring to arrange peace conference to clean the slate between Turkey and Greece and prevent more fighting in the near east rumble of impending hostilities continue to come from Constantinople and the Dardanelles.

A relatively small force of British troops is holding Chanak, the key zone on the southern shore of the straits, while the Turkish nationalists, eager for further conquest after their overwhelming defeat of the Greeks are concentrated outside the neutral zone at land and Chanak.

The Komitists, official French dispatches say, have available for use in such a drive 10,000 modern field guns, 3,000 machine guns and enough ammunition for a two years campaign, which they captured from the Greeks.

Turks determined. Their spokesman at Constantinople, is expected to say that the Turks are determined the allies shall not stand in the path of their desire to re-occupy Thrace.

An Associated Press dispatch quotes this spokesman, Hamid Bey, to the effect that the Kemalists army will certainly declare war on the British if they attempt to interfere with a movement across the straits.

A ray of hope, however, is seen in the conference at Constantinople between Mustafa Kemal Pasha and General Pelle, French high commissioner, to which Yusuf Kemal Bey the nationalist foreign minister, has been hastily summoned from Ankara. The calling in of Yusuf Kemal, points to the discussion of important and delicate questions and the consequent delay raises hopes that the Turkish attack, if it takes place at all, will be retarded until the British reinforcements can arrive.

Depend on British. Opinion here for the moment is banking on the strength of the British navy force in the Dardanelles, which is considered sufficient alone to hold any possible attack by the Turks.

According to the Times, the Russian soviet government sees in the present near eastern situation an opportunity to obtain recognition from the powers. Russia proposes the newspapers say, to act the part of mediator between the Turks and Greeks, hoping thereby to establish the popularity of the soviet republic among the peoples of Mohammedan Asia and compel the entente powers to revise their attitude toward her.

Marmara and before Smyrna are preparing to hold the Turkish leader in check. Britain is rushing troops to occupy the neutral zone about Constantinople, indicated by the dotted line. Kemal in a draft of peace terms has demanded Constantinople and Adrianople, seen, west of Constantinople.

BODY OF MINER WHO WROTE LAST MESSAGE, LOST

Searchers Believe Fessel Is Buried Beneath Caving; Hopes Held That It Will Be Found.

JACKSON — One body was missing today among those of the 47 gold miners who perished from gas nearly a mile down in the Argonaut shaft. It was the body of Wm. Fessel, the man who wrote on the rock with the smoke of his miners' lamp a farewell message. Fessel wrote "Gas getting bad 3 o'clock."

It was hoped to find Fessel's body today. It was believed possible that he, evidently a leader of the strikers, had crept from the chamber of death to a higher level, hoping to find some means of escape for his comrades. The men from the bureau of mines were certain, however, that they counted 47 bodies when, last Monday night, the gruesome discovery was made. They considered it more likely that Fessel's body was buried by a caving since the work of removal began.

Plea of Not Guilty Is Re-entered; Judge Holds a Fair Trial Is Possible in Carter County.

LARGE PART OF DOCKET IS RESET

Clint Pierce Acquitted on the Charge of Slaying Tom Fogle Near Milo.

Motion for a change of venue was overruled in the Bud Goss case in district court Thursday morning by Judge B. C. Logsdon, and the trial proceeded after the motion had been read to the court.

When court convened attorneys Mathers and Hardy representing the defendant withdrew defendants plea of not guilty and introduced the motion setting forth the allegations that their client could not obtain a fair and impartial trial in Carter county owing to wide publicity given the case by newspapers.

Supporting the motion were four affidavits from Ardmore citizens, who set forth their belief that it would be impossible for defendant to secure a fair trial owing to existing prejudices. Affiants were Dee Elliot, S. C. Shropshire, G. E. Newman and J. A. La-throp.

Plea Re-entered. The court set forth its opinion that defendant could secure a fair trial in Carter county, whereupon attorneys for the defense reentered their plea of not guilty and the case proceeded.
